Description

The CBCF is collecting information on voter suppression to educate Black communities in the upcoming election. Write a memo on the topic of voter suppression. The memo should include a survey of any statutes, regulations, legislation, and/or policies related to the topic that have either restricted Black voting rights or advanced solutions to voter suppression for the Black community since 2020. Examples include voter ID laws, voter roll purges, limited early voting, reduced access to polling places, voter intimidation practices, disinformation campaigns, felony disenfranchisement laws, and gerrymandering.
