

Revisiting the Case for Reparations: A Conversation with Ta-Nehisi Coates

Wednesday, June 26, 2024 at 1:00 p.m. ET

In honor of Juneteenth, please join the Law Firm Antiracism Alliance's (LFAA) Reparations Taskforce for a conversation with Ta-Nehisi Coates about his essay, "The Case for Reparations." Coates and moderator Olivia Constance Bethea will discuss the case for reparations, advances since the article's publication ten years ago, and key obstacles that the reparations movement still faces.

This discussion is the first in the LFAA Reparations Taskforce's speaker series about the case for reparations for descendants of the Transatlantic Slave Trade and local, regional and national reparations efforts. Opportunities for pro bono engagement will also be discussed.

We encourage Alliance firms to watch this discussion in groups as an educational, team-building opportunity. Please register to secure your spot at this important event.

Registration link:

We look forward to seeing you at the event and appreciate your continued support.

- If you have any questions, please contact Guerby Noel at guerby@lawfirmantiracismalliance.org.
- For more information on booking Ta’Nehisi Coates, please visit www.prhspeakers.com.
- For those interested in purchasing Mr. Coates’ books, please visit: <https://ta-nehiscoates.com/books/>.