Description

The DC Justice Lab, a team of law and policy experts researching, organizing, and advocating for large-scale changes to the District of Columbia's criminal legal system, seeks pro-bono support for developing research articles for our online library. In Washington, DC, there is no clearinghouse of information on the core issues affecting policing, prosecution, and punishment or the policy options for residents to take action to reduce the harm of justice system involvement.

DC Justice Lab seeks research and writing support for at least ten research articles among 14 possible topics. If an individual firm or Summer Associate expresses interest in this project, the DC Justice Lab can provide a longer memorandum describing the project by email.
