

Potential Federal-Law Challenges to FLHSMV's English-Only Driver License Testing Policy

< LFAA RESOURCES < PUBLICATIONS & RESEARCH

Publications & Research

01 Jul 2026

This memorandum analyzes potential federal-law challenges to the Florida Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicle's English-only driver's license examination policy. It evaluates the viability of claims under Title VI, federal transportation regulations, and the Due Process and Equal Protection Clauses of the Constitution. It further considers whether a section 1983 claim could succeed if Plaintiffs establish an underlying constitutional violation. Finally, the memorandum presents potential federal remedies if Plaintiffs' claims have merit.

Working Groups

Voting Rights

LFAA is not a law firm and does not provide legal services or referrals. The contents of this resource do not constitute legal advice and the user of this resource agrees that no attorney-client relationship is being formed between the user and any person or entity, including LFAA and the lawyers or law firms that drafted the resource. LFAA makes no representation regarding the accuracy of any information included in this resource.

Attachments

Potential Federal-Law Challenges to FLHSMV's English-Only Driver License Testing Policy

LFAA is not a law firm and does not provide legal services or referrals to individuals, legal services organizations or public interest agencies. If you believe you need a lawyer, please contact your local bar association or go to www.lawhelp.org.

© 2026 Law Firm Antiracism Alliance. All Rights Reserved