

Disability Awareness

< LFAA RESOURCES < THE EXCHANGES

The Exchange

05 May 2024

Access Living compiled a simple primer to serve as a basic resource or introduction. The materials define disabilities through a social model and discusses allyship, communication, access, activism, disability etiquette, definitions, appropriate language usage, and outdated expressions.

LFAA is not a law firm and does not provide legal services or referrals. The contents of this resource do not constitute legal advice and the user of this resource agrees that no attorney-client relationship is being formed between the user and any person or entity, including LFAA and the lawyers or law firms that drafted the resource. LFAA makes no representation regarding the accuracy of any information included in this resource.

Attachments

Disability Awareness

LFAA is not a law firm and does not provide legal services or referrals to individuals, legal services organizations or public interest agencies. If you believe you need a lawyer, please contact your local bar association or go to www.lawhelp.org.

