

Memorandum of Support for Reunification of Children with Birth Parents

< LFAA RESOURCES < PUBLICATIONS & RESEARCH

Publications & Research

15 Aug 2023

Drawing on primary and secondary sources, including case law, social science research, and law review and journal articles, this memorandum covers various arguments that support the notion of preserving the bonds between biological parents and their children in the context of child welfare proceedings and thereafter. Guided by the principle that a child's best interest should be the paramount consideration, this memorandum includes considerations of the legal, psychological, and socio-cultural factors that contribute to the recognition and protection of these familial ties.

LFAA is not a law firm and does not provide legal services or referrals. The contents of this resource do not constitute legal advice and the user of this resource agrees that no attorney-client relationship is being formed between the user and any person or entity, including LFAA and the lawyers or law firms that drafted the resource. LFAA makes no representation regarding the accuracy of any information included in this resource.

Attachments

Memorandum of Support for Reunification of Children with Birth Parents

Contacts

Erika Fairfield

Working Groups

Other

LFAA is not a law firm and does not provide legal services or referrals to individuals, legal services organizations or public interest agencies. If you believe you need a lawyer, please contact your local bar association or go to www.lawhelp.org.

© 2026 Law Firm Antiracism Alliance. All Rights Reserved