

Mental Health Courts: Essential Elements, Challenges, and the Intersection with Race and Homelessness

< LFAA RESOURCES < PUBLICATIONS & RESEARCH

Publications & Research

21 Jul 2023

Mental Health Courts are an alternative tool used in the criminal justice systems to help those with mental illnesses. This presentation will provide an overview of their structure and consider how these courts relate to racial equity and homelessness. It also addresses common criticisms of mental health courts and how they might be improved.

Contacts

Gillian Clow

Working Groups

Homelessness

---

LFAA is not a law firm and does not provide legal services or referrals. The contents of this resource do not constitute legal advice and the user of this resource agrees that no attorney-client relationship is being formed between the user and any person or entity, including LFAA and the lawyers or law firms that drafted the resource. LFAA makes no representation regarding the accuracy of any information included in this resource.

Attachments

Mental Health Courts Race and Homelessness

to www.lawhelp.org.

© 2026 Law Firm Antiracism Alliance. All Rights Reserved