

Abortion & Race: Why Abortion Bans and Restrictions Disproportionately Affect Black Women and People of Color

< LFAA RESOURCES < PUBLICATIONS & RESEARCH

Publications & Research

28 Jan 2023

The report explores state laws that ban or severely restrict abortion in the context of reproductive justice and structural racism. To that end, the report reviews federal and state-level data (particularly in states where anti-abortion laws have been enacted or proposed) to analyze the ways in which current and proposed state anti-abortion laws uphold existing structural racism and disparately impact Black women, people of color, and other marginalized people.

LFAA is not a law firm and does not provide legal services or referrals. The contents of this resource do not constitute legal advice and the user of this resource agrees that no attorney-client relationship is being formed between the user and any person or entity, including LFAA and the lawyers or law firms that drafted the resource. LFAA makes no representation regarding the accuracy of any information included in this resource.

Attachments

Abortion and Race

Contacts

Christina Hammervold

Sarah Gelfand

Emma Ross

Working Groups

Reproductive Justice

LFAA is not a law firm and does not provide legal services or referrals to individuals, legal services organizations or public interest agencies. If you believe you need a lawyer, please contact your local bar association or go to www.lawhelp.org.

© 2026 Law Firm Antiracism Alliance. All Rights Reserved