

Practicing Culturally Competent Therapeutic Jurisprudence: A Collaboration Between Social Work and Law

< LFAA RESOURCES < THE EXCHANGES

The Exchange

06 May 2024

Therapeutic jurisprudence is a comprehensive law movement that argues for increased attention to race, ethnicity, and culturally competent practice in the lawyer-client relationship from a therapeutic jurisprudence perspective. The article advocates for the application of the framework by lawyers when interacting with clients. Carolyn Copps Hartley & Carrie J. Petrucci. January 2004.

LFAA is not a law firm and does not provide legal services or referrals. The contents of this resource do not constitute legal advice and the user of this resource agrees that no attorney-client relationship is being formed between the user and any person or entity, including LFAA and the lawyers or law firms that drafted the resource. LFAA makes no representation regarding the accuracy of any information included in this resource.

Tags

Implicit Bias, General

Attachments

Practicing Culturally Competent Therapeutic Jurisprudence A Collaboration Between Social Work and Law

LFAA is not a law firm and does not provide legal services or referrals to individuals, legal services organizations or public interest agencies. If you believe you need a lawyer, please contact your local bar association or go to www.lawhelp.org.

© 2026 Law Firm Antiracism Alliance. All Rights Reserved