

Working With Interpreters

< LFAA RESOURCES < THE EXCHANGES

The Exchange

25 Apr 2024

This PowerPoint presentation by Sue Bryant, CUNY School of Law, provides the basics of working with an interpreter when dealing with a Limited English Proficient client. Included within the presentation is an examination of who can be an interpreter, ethical concerns, as well as red flags to be aware of during an interpreted interview. Additionally, the training provides pointers to the attorney on how best to frame his/her questions, as well as other practical suggestions to provide the client with equal access to justice.

---

LFAA is not a law firm and does not provide legal services or referrals. The contents of this resource do not constitute legal advice and the user of this resource agrees that no attorney-client relationship is being formed between the user and any person or entity, including LFAA and the lawyers or law firms that drafted the resource. LFAA makes no representation regarding the accuracy of any information included in this resource.

Tags

General

Attachments

Working with Interpreters

LFAA is not a law firm and does not provide legal services or referrals to individuals, legal services organizations or public interest agencies. If you believe you need a lawyer, please contact your local bar association or go to www.lawhelp.org.

© 2026 Law Firm Antiracism Alliance. All Rights Reserved