

Southern Poverty Law Center's Learning for Justice

< LFAA RESOURCES < THE EXCHANGES

The Exchange

17 Jun 2024

This resource focuses on the science behind bias and prejudice to raise awareness and promote understanding of unconscious prejudices to foster more inclusive and equitable environments. It offers tools and assessments for individuals to test themselves for hidden biases. It outlines how biases and prejudices are formed, how they impact our behavior and their effects on others, and how individuals can commit to change. Southern Poverty Law Center. 2004.

---

LFAA is not a law firm and does not provide legal services or referrals. The contents of this resource do not constitute legal advice and the user of this resource agrees that no attorney-client relationship is being formed between the user and any person or entity, including LFAA and the lawyers or law firms that drafted the resource. LFAA makes no representation regarding the accuracy of any information included in this resource.

Tags

Children & Youth, Implicit Bias, General, Families, Immigrants & Refugees, LGBTQ+, People with Disabilities, Poverty

External Links

Learning for Justice

LFAA is not a law firm and does not provide legal services or referrals to individuals, legal services organizations or public interest agencies. If you believe you need a lawyer, please contact your local bar association or go to www.lawhelp.org.

© 2026 Law Firm Antiracism Alliance. All Rights Reserved