

Cultural Competency: Providing Empowering and Trauma-Informed Pro Bono Legal Services

< LFAA RESOURCES < THE EXCHANGES

The Exchange

08 May 2024

This training video provides an overview of power, privilege, and identity to assist advocates with recognizing how best to communicate best with clients. The training also provides an introduction to trauma and how best to address those traumas to create a successful relationship.

Take note that you must create a profile to access the training video and quiz.

LFAA is not a law firm and does not provide legal services or referrals. The contents of this resource do not constitute legal advice and the user of this resource agrees that no attorney-client relationship is being formed between the user and any person or entity, including LFAA and the lawyers or law firms that drafted the resource. LFAA makes no representation regarding the accuracy of any information included in this resource.

Tags

General, Children & Youth, Domestic & Sexual Violence Survivors, Elderly, Families, Formerly Incarcerated, Homelessness, Immigrants & Refugees, Implicit Bias, LGBTQ+, Non-Profits & Social Enterprises, People with Disabilities, Poverty, Pre-Incarcerated & Incarcerated, Veterans & Military Families, Women, Workers & Unemployed

External Links

Cultural Competency: Providing Empowering and Trauma-Informed Pro Bono Legal Services

LFAA is not a law firm and does not provide legal services or referrals to individuals, legal services organizations or public interest agencies. If you believe you need a lawyer, please contact your local bar association or go to www.lawhelp.org.

© 2026 Law Firm Antiracism Alliance. All Rights Reserved